

Book Clubs

Dorset East welcomed two new Book Club Project Organisers to our team in 2008

Judy Bailey [who is already a RSVP school volunteer] had expressed an interest in also running a book club.

We had great help from Christchurch Library in forming the club with Jenny at the library saying, "You can never have too many book clubs".

The group have been running since April 08 & meet at the library on the last Tuesday of every month & Bridges Book Club continues to be going well.

Patricia Darby is the Organiser for the second of our book clubs called The Crime Squad, based at Charminster Library.

It started up in Sept.08 with meetings on the last Friday of the month. Once again, the library is very helpful & the group is mixing well.

Patricia is also very involved with volunteering at BSVI (Bournemouth Soc for Visually Impaired)

Two more Book Club Project Organisers joined the rest of our team in 2010

Cicely Wright is the Organiser for the third of our book clubs, which launched in March 2010 based at Creekmoor (Poole) library. Working with Jenny Oliver from Poole library, we advertised the book club which meets once a month on Friday mornings.

From the friendly, relaxed first meeting it was anticipated the club, which was named Book Ends Reading Group, would be a successful one. This has proved to be the case as the club now has a waiting list.

Marion Oliver is the Organiser for our fourth book club launched in May 2010 at Rossmore Library.

The members enjoyed a sociable chat with coffee & biscuits provided by the library, after which they all came away with a book called 'No Time for Goodbye' by Linwood Barclay.

On the second meeting in June, they decided to call themselves The Alderney Allsorts.

The club members had such an enjoyable time that after the following meeting the group went out for coffee, and have arranged to meet up again for lunch in October.

If you would like further details of any of these clubs, please contact
Office Admin at: rsvpdorseteast@virginmedia.com